

Gonna Love You Anyway

(Words and Music) – Thom Sebastian C 2005

Tell me are you asking me to stop what comes so naturally
Like breathing – It's just something I do
Are you asking me to make believe the dreams we shared are history
I won't – Because I can't stop loving you

Are you really gonna tell me you don't love me anymore
That you'll never ever feel again like you did for me before

I don't know
If I can let these feelings go
I still love you far too much to never let it show
But if you tell me now it's over – turn and walk away
Just remember – I'm gonna love you anyway

No matter where you go
I'll love you anyway
No matter what you do
I'll love you anyway
No matter what you say.....
